

Kharimenkyo Test

1.  A hand signal by a driver as shown in the figure indicates that vehicle will slow down or stop.
2. Vehicles must not overtake, but permitted to pass other vehicles at a pedestrian or the bicycle zone, or 30 meter before on one.
3.  A vehicle facing this traffic light must stop and watch for traffic.
4. When driving near a school bus which has stopped to pick up or drop off pupil, drivers may proceed without slowing down and check safety.
5.  When turning right in as intersection with a pavement marking as shown in the figure, vehicles must proceed along the arrows.
6.  All light-duty vehicles can advance slowly.
7.  Vehicles and streetcars must not exceed driving at speed of 30Km/hr. or more.
8. Even if the traffic light for an intersection road is red, it does not necessary mean that the light for your traffic is always green.
9. Overtaking requires complicated driving technique such a changing lanes, accelerating, and returning to the same lane.
10.  This marking means that parking and stopping are prohibited.

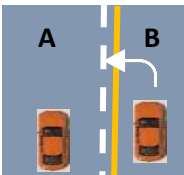

11. When you practice driving with a learner's permit you must attach a beginner's mark to the front and rear of the vehicle.

12.  You must slow down when you pass the road with this traffic sign.

13.  A license holder who has possessed a regular license for less than one year must put this sign on the visible place of the vehicle.

14.  The car in the picture is parked illegally.

15. A person who has license for moped can drive a moped and light duty special vehicle.

16.  At a road with this marking in the figure car proceeding on lane B can change its course to lane A.

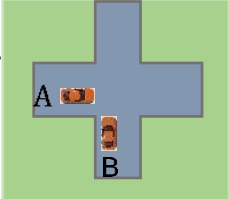

17. If emergency vehicle approaches, you must change lane to let it pass even when you are travelling the designated lane.

18.  On the road with this sign parking is permitted from 8-20.

19. You must proceed slowly when you pass the intersection with poor visibility where traffic signal is installed.

20.   This traffic sign and marking have the same meaning.

21. When the accelerator pedal is depressed suddenly while driving an automatic transmission will automatically shift to lower gear, enabling the vehicle to accelerate suddenly.

22.  When the cars approach the intersection where the width of each road is the same, car A must not obstruct the path of car B.

23. If you can conform safety you can proceed without slowing down when you pass near the school bus stopping on the road.

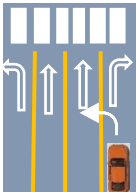

24.  You can turn the left at an intersection with this sign regardless of the traffic light.

25. You must not overtake or pass other cars in area within 30 meters from the crosswalk or bicycle crossing lanes.

26.  This sign marking indicates that the lane is for buses only so other vehicle (except for mopeds, light-duty special vehicles) are prohibited to travel the lane.

27.  On the road with this sign, you must stop just before the stop line. If there is no stop line, you must stop just before intersection.

28. You should proceed slowly even if it is clear that nobody is at the pedestrian crossing or at the bicycle crossing zone.

29.  The car in this figure cannot change lanes to go straight at the intersection.

30. When you pass a person with a white or yellow cane, or a physically challenged person in a wheelchair, it is safe to pass them by sounding the horn and warn them.

31. This traffic marking means ``no entry zone``

32. When you drive the road with no sidewalk or zone, you should not enter the side strip {the area which is 0.5 meter away from the road}

33. Road in order to overtake {overtaking without entering right side of the road is permitted}

34. It is not necessary for driver to check for the traffic when passengers get in or out the vehicle.

35. You must not cross at a place where these traffic sign are shown.

36. When you park an automatic transmission car on an uphill you should shift the gear into L.

37. On the road in this picture, you can enter the right side of the road to overtake a vehicle ahead.

38. When you pass by a parked car, you should keep a safe distance or proceed slowly because the door of the parked car might suddenly open.

39. This marking indicated that you must give way to other cars ahead.

40. You must fulfill the requirements for driving as stated in your driver's license. (AT, wearing glasses, etc.)

41.  This road sign indicated that parking of a car or motorcycle is prohibited.

42. On a one-way road a vehicle can enter the right side of the road.

43.  This hand signal by police officer in this picture means red light for the traffic indicated in the arrow.

44. You are at an intersection to turn right; you must not obstruct other vehicles going straight or turning left.

45.  This sign means that you can only go straight.

46. Vehicles must stop when cross the sidewalk in order to enter the lot even if there are no pedestrian.

47. When vehicles ahead stopped or slowed down at an intersection, etc. Cutting in front of them is prohibited.

48. When a police officer controlling traffic, holding his/her arms straight up {vertically} at an intersection, this hand signal has the same meaning as yellow light for traffic proceeding parallel to the stance of the police.

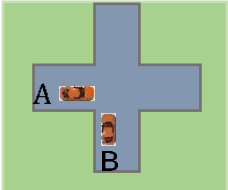

49. For the correct operation of the gearshift of an automatic transmission vehicle is to put it in the ``D`` position to move forward ``R`` position to reverse and the ``P`` position to park the vehicle.

50. Riders must ride two wheeled vehicles with correct posture, otherwise braking could throw the rider off balance the forward.

51. If you were in the crossing gate which is down or about to go down, you can proceed through the railroad even when its warning bell is ringing.

52.  A vehicle facing this traffic light does not need to stop at an intersection if it can watch out for traffic.

53. You may stop your car inside the ``No Stopping Zone`` in front of the police or fire station if there are not emergency vehicles coming out.

54.  When the cars approach the intersection where the width of each road is the same. The car A must not obstruct the path of the car B.

55. When you drive the road with no sidewalk or pedestrian zone, you cannot enter the shoulder. {The area which is 0.5 meter away from the edge of that road}.

56.  The sign does not prohibit mopeds from moving on the road.

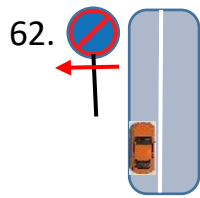

57. If you have a learner's permit for a regular license, you can ride a moped for practice on the road.

58.  This road sign means ``right of way``

59. You must keep a safe distance or slow down when you pass near the pedestrian and bicycle.

60.  This road marking indicates there is a pedestrian crossing ahead.

61. When traffic light changes to yellow at the intersection, you may proceed by paying attention to other traffic even if you can stop safely at the stopping point.

The car shown in this picture is parked illegally.

63. You were taking on your cellphone held in your hand because you recall something to deal with urgently while waiting at the traffic light. While continuing talking on the phone.

This sign shows ``road narrows``.

65. Riders must ride two wheeled vehicles with the correct posture otherwise sudden braking could throw the rider off balance and forward distance.

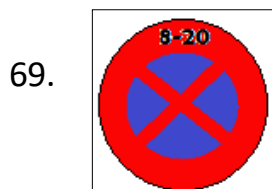

This hand signal by the police officer in this picture is the same as the green light for the traffic indicated with an arrow.

67. A comfortable driving position is where your knees are fully stretched when you place your foot on a clutched pedal.

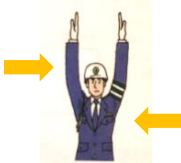

This sign means ``bicycle only``.

On the road with this sign parking and stopping is prohibited from 8 to 20.

70. The holder of a learner's permit can be identified with the copy of the original permit so if you carry the copy while practicing driving, it is not necessary to carry the original permit.

71.  A learner's permit holder must practice driving by placing this sign on the designated place of the front and rear of the vehicle.
72. When an emergency vehicle approaches you on the road other than one-way street, you must give way to the emergency vehicle by pulling over to the left and coming to a stop.
73. When facing a signal changed to yellow, if you can stop safely, you can proceed through the intersection.
74.  Indicates the end of the section or zone where the traffic regulation shown by the main sign ends.
75. Drivers must drive carefully, proceeding the action and exercise caution towards the movement of pedestrian and bicycle.
76. Getting flat tire while riding a two-wheeled vehicle, the driver may walk the vehicle on the sidewalk to a repair shop nearby sidewalk while the engine is running.
77.  The police officer's hand signal in the figure has the same meaning as the red light for the traffic proceeding in the direction of the arrows.
78. On a road where there is a solid yellow line at the center, drivers are not allowed to enter the right side of the road where visibility is good.
79. When the facing signal change to yellow and if you cannot stop safely, you can proceed through the intersection.
80. People involved in accidents in crosswalk should give a first aid and reporting to police responsibility for accidents.

81. Crossing into the right side of the road to overtake another vehicle must minimize as much as possible.

82.  You must stop at the stopping line or behind the near side of the intersection when the stopping line does not exist at an intersection where the sign is.

83.  A traffic sign shown in this figure indicates that there is a school or kindergarten nearby.

84. The user or driver of the vehicle with a determination of an illegally parked left vehicle sticker attached or a person who has responsibility to maintain the vehicle can remove the sticker.

85.  → This two signs means "end regulation".

86.  When driver's arms extended diagonally it indicates to slow down or to stop.

87.  Where there is a traffic sign as shown in the figure vehicles must proceed slowly.

88.  The mark designated at the front and rear end of the vehicle is placed if you are a new driver having a regular license for less than one year.

89. You must not use cellphone while driving unless you are equipped with a hands free device.

90. When you catch up with a route bus which stopped downhill a bus station, you must wait until the bus starts forward.

91.  The traffic sign as shown in the figure designates a road that is closed to motorized bicycles and non-motorized conveyances as well as automobiles.

92.  Stopping is prohibited where the marking shown.

93. Using a mobile phone or looking at the screen of a navigation system does not affect a driver's attention, and may not result in overlooking possible danger or an accident.

94.  Vehicles are prohibited from crossing the road and to turn left for enter or exit a roadside facility.

95. You must have attached a learner's permit at the rear side of the regular passenger vehicle you practice driving with a beginner's mark on public road.

96. For cars equipped with air bag system does not need to use seatbelts.

97. It is advisable for driver to sound the horn as much as possible at the intersection where visibility is poor.

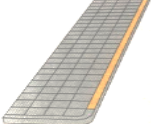

98. When truck is stopped just before an uncontrolled pedestrian and bicycle crossing, vehicles may pass the truck without slowing down.

99.  When both cars approach the intersection where the width of each road is the same, the car A must not obstruct the path of car B.

100. It is permitted to display goods for sale on the sidewalk where they are separated from roadways sidewalks.

101.  A hand signal by a driver as shown in the figure indicates that the vehicle will slow down or stop.

102.  A vehicle facing this traffic light must watch for traffic, but not need to stop.

103.  A pavement marking as shown in the figure indicates the location where vehicles must not stop or park.

104.  You must stop at the stopping line or behind the near side of the intersection.

105. A person who has a license for a moped can ride moped and special light duty vehicle.

106. Rider must ride two wheeled vehicles with correct posture, otherwise braking could throw the rider off balance and forward.

107. You must keep a safe distance or slow down when you pass near bicycle and pedestrian.

108.  You can turn left at an intersection with this sign regardless of the traffic light.

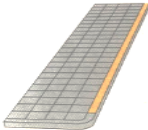

109. You must attach a learner's permit at the rear of the regular vehicles when you practice driving with a beginner's mark on a public road.

110.  The traffic sign indicates that proceeding in the right side of the road for the purpose of overtaking is prohibited.

111.  A traffic sign as shown in the figure indicates that there is a large intersection ahead.

112. In order to make left turn at an intersection, it is advisable to turn the steering wheel of a vehicle just before the turn left to eliminate the wheelbase differential.

113. A regular license holder can ride on a regular motorcycle.

114.  Vehicles are prohibited from stopping or parking.

115. It is not necessary to consider your footwear too much because they have nothing to do with driving a vehicle.

116. When an emergency vehicle is approaching from behind at an intersection, vehicles must stop immediately where they are.

117.  A pavement as shown in the figure designates the end of the maximum speed limit of 50 K.M per hour.

118.  Vehicles are prohibited from crossing the road except for vehicles turning left to enter or exit a roadside facility.

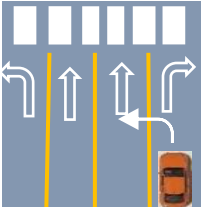

119. It is advisable for a driver to sound the horn as much as possible at the intersection where the visibility is poor.

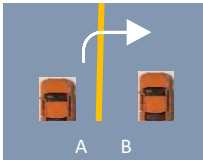

120. When you're learning to drive, you must carry a permit of learner license is necessary.

121.  Towing motor vehicle must travel in the lane indicated by the designation sign.

122. Except in emergency, vehicle may stop and enter in areas designated by pavement marking in front of police and fire station because the pavement marking only apply in an emergency.

123. When in front of an obstacle, you must stop or decelerate and give way to the oncoming traffic.

124.  The car in this figure can change lanes to turn right at the intersection.

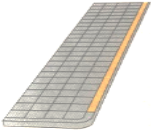

125.  Vehicles in lane A must not change to lane B.

126. When you facing signal changed to yellow and if you cannot stop safely, you can proceed through an intersection.

127. When you catch up with a route bus which has stopped on a downhill bus station behind the bus until it starts to move forward.

128.  Vehicles cannot proceed except in the direction left and right turns.

129.  The traffic signs indicates pedestrian crossing nearby.

130.  Vehicles are prohibited form stopping or parking.

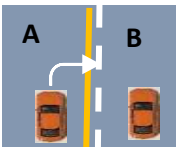

131. When you catch up with a route bus which has stopped a bus station you must behind the bus until it starts forward.

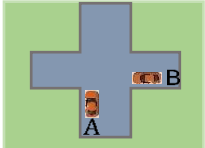

132. When a person is traveling in a wheelchair to carrying a white or yellow cane, drivers must slow down or stop.

133.  This hand signal by the police officer in this picture means a red light for the traffic indicated with an arrow.

134.  Placed at the exit of a one-way street and vehicles are prohibited to enter.

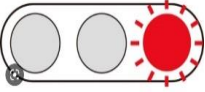

135. For cars equipped with airbag system does not need to use the seatbelts.

136.  On the road in this picture, vehicle A cannot enter the right side of the road to overtake a vehicle ahead.

137.  When the cars approach the intersection where the width of each road is the same, the car A must not obstruct the car B.

138. If an emergency vehicle approaches, you must change lanes without paying attention and keep driving without giving way to the emergency vehicles.

139. When towing a broken car with gross weight of 750kg or less using a regular vehicle a towing license and in addition to an appropriate license for towing automobiles, is required.

140.  Vehicles and streetcars facing as shown in the figure may enter the intersection by slowing down while watching other traffic.

141.  Vehicles are prohibited from making a U-Turn.

142. It is not necessary to ensure the safety of opening and closing the door when passengers gets in or out of the vehicle.

143. You must not overtake or pass other cars in area within 30 meters from the crosswalk or bicycle crossing lane.

144. The user or driver of the vehicle with a determination of an illegally parked and left vehicle sticker attached or the person who has responsibility to maintain the vehicle cannot remove the sticker.

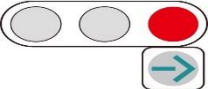

145. A good comfortable driving posture is posture where you are knees are fully stretched and foot is placed on the clutch pedal.

146.  A vehicle can travel on the road with this sign.

147. Seat belts can save lives whenever there is a traffic accidents and they can reduce the driver's fatigue by helping to be in proper driving posture.

148.  This hand signal by the police officer in this picture means a red light for the traffic indicated by an arrow.

149. When you practice driving with a learners permit, you must be accompanied by an experienced driver who has possessed a category 1 license for over three years or a category 2 license.

150.  Vehicle facing this traffic light must stop at the stopping area and watch out for turning left vehicles.

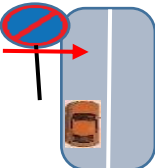

151. Drivers must carefully proceed along the center line when they make a left turn because it does not cause the near pedestrian and bicycle to get run over at the intersections.

152.  This sign show ``Narrow Road``.

153. When you see the flashing red light at an intersection, you must always stop.

154.  On the road with this sign, parking and stopping is prohibited from 8 to 20.

155. If you tow a vehicle with a total weight of 750kg or less a towing license is not required.

156.  The car shown in this picture is parked illegal.

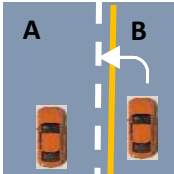

157. You should not drive if you have taken drowsiness-inducing medications.

158.  A learner's permit holder must practice driving by placing this sign on the designated places of the front and rear of the vehicles.

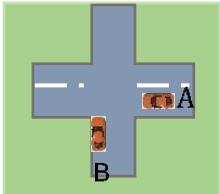

159. When an emergency vehicle is approaching you should stop even if you were at the intersection.

160.  This road sign means ``right of way``.

161. You may sound your horn if necessary to avoid danger.

162.  At a road with this marketing sign in the figure, the car may proceed on lane B and can change its course to lane A.

163. Braking Distance is the distance traveled by the vehicle after the driver has reacted to danger and hit brake plus the distance required for the vehicle to come to halt.

164.  The car A should give way to car B at the intersection where its road width is the same.

165. If you need to start in reverse it is better to ask a passenger the vehicle to check for traffic when the rear visibility is poor of when backing out from a narrow road into a wider one.

166.  On the lane with this sign, regular passenger cars cannot travel alone the lane except for making a left turn or avoiding road construction.

167. When you drive the road with no sidewalk or side strip you cannot enter the shoulder (the area which 0.5 meter away from the edge of the road)

168.

In this picture the hand signal seen from the rear, when the driver extends the arm horizontally, it means that the car is about to stop.

169. When you pass a person with a white or yellow cane, or a physically challenged person is a wheelchair, you need to stop or slow down so that these people can pass safely.

170.

All vehicles cannot make right or left turn.

171. When there is nobody getting on or off the streetcar, tram at the streetcar stop, you may proceed slowly if you are at the distance of 1.5 meter or more from streetcar, tram or if there is a safety zone.

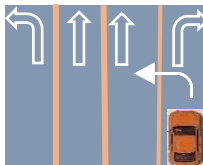

172.

This marking means that speed limit of 50km/h begins here.

173. When you pass the pedestrian walking inside the side strip, you do not need to keep safe distance from them or slow down.

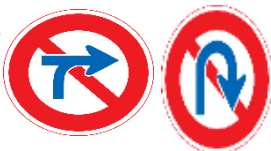

174.

The car in lane A can change its lane to the lane B to go straight.

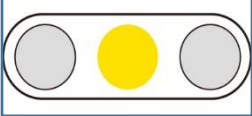

175. Vehicle must stop when the cross the sidewalk order to enter the parking lot even if there is no pedestrian.

176.

You must not cross or make a U-Turn at a place where these traffic sign are shown.

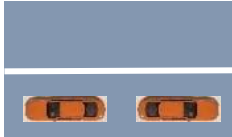

177. You must not overtake or pass other cars in area within 30 meters from the crosswalk or bicycle crossing lane.

178.  Vehicle facing this traffic light must always stop and watch out for traffic.

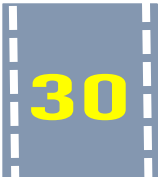

179. Because my car entered the intersection first I turned right before the oncoming vehicle.

180.  This traffic sign and marking have same meaning.

181. You can proceed when the pedestrian who is crossing on the road notices you and stop.

182.  You cannot enter the right side of the road as shown in the picture to overtake other car.

183. You cannot stop your car inside the no stopping zone in front of the police station or the fire station even when there are not emergency vehicle coming out.

184.  This road marking means that the speed limit of this road is 30km/hr.

185. I operated the navigation system and looked for a route while driving because I got lost.

186.  The car B in the figure must proceed slowly when it passes the intersection with poor visibility due to obstacles.

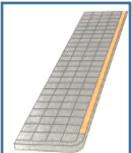

187. If you can check for traffic, you can proceed without slowing down, when you pass the school bus stopping on the road.

188.  You do not need to slow down if you can look left and right completely when you pass the road with this traffic sign.

189. When closing the door after getting in the vehicle, it is better to apply forces to shut it completely without stopping just before the door latches.

190.  On the road with this traffic sign you can over take other cars if there are no oncoming vehicles and if you can confirm safety.

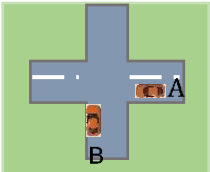

191. On a slope a vehicle travelling uphill should give way to a vehicle travelling downhill.

192.  This road marking indicates ``No Parking``.

193. When you park your car, you should shift the gear into the ``P`` (parking) position regardless of the road condition.

194.  At an intersection with this traffic sign, you can proceed by confirming safety without making a stop.

195. On a one-way road, vehicles can drive from the center to the right side of the road.

196.  The car B does not need to give way to car A.

197. For learner with a learner's permit to practice driving, a driver needs to be in the passenger seat, there are no requirements to be an experienced driver.

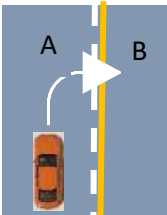

198. On the one-way road a vehicle can enter right when crossing the side of the road.

199. The user of driver of the vehicle with a determination of an illegally parked left vehicle sticker attached or a person who has responsibility to maintain the vehicle can remove the sticker.

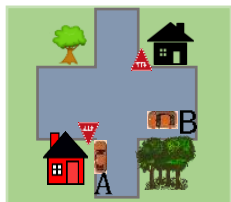

200.  On the road with this sign, you can overtake other cars, if there are no oncoming vehicles and can confirm safety.

201.  You cannot enter the right side of the as in the picture to overtake others.

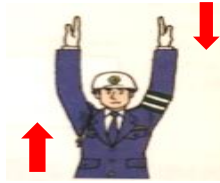

202. The holder of a learner's permit can be identified with the copy of the original permit so if you carry the copy while practicing driving it is not necessary to carry the original permit.

203.  The car travelling on lane A can change its course to lane B.

204. When you drive across the sidewalk to enter the parking lot, you do not need to stop before the sidewalk if you can confirm safety.

205.  The car B in the figure must proceed slowly while it passes the intersection with poor visibility due to obstacles.

206. This hand signal by the police officer in this picture means a red light for the traffic indicated with an arrow.

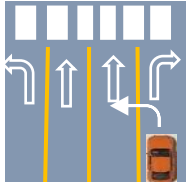

207. You were talking on your cellphone held in your hand because you recalled something to deal with urgently while at traffic light. When the traffic light turned green, you started driving the vehicle while continuing talking on the phone.

208. You may sound the horn when you pass an intersection, corner of the road, or top of a hill where its visibility is poor in sounding zone.

209.  Vehicles and mopeds can pass through roads regulated by this traffic sign.

210. You may proceed slowly before you pass the vehicle If there is a car stopping at or before a crosswalk.

211.  The car in this figure cannot change lane or go straight at the intersection.

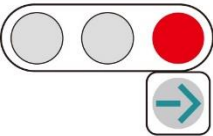

212.  When you approach the section of the road indicated by this traffic sign, you must gradually move toward the right side while exercising caution with the vehicles behind you.

213.  This is a picture of a hand signal seen from rear, when the driver shows his arm diagonally, it means that the car is slowing down or making a complete stop.

214. When you catch up with a route bus which has stopped at a bus station you must wait behind the bus until it starts to move forward.

215. You can overtake other cars, mopeds at a steep downhill.

216.  A learner's permit holder must practice driving placing this sign on the designated places of the front and rear of the vehicle.

217.  Vehicle can proceed in the direction indicated by the green arrow, when the green arrow indicated to the right, it is possible to turn right or make a U-Turn.

218.  The pavement markings shown on the left, designated that there is either a pedestrian crossing or a bicycle crossing ahead.

219. Even when proceeding on a where the vehicular lanes are designated by a yellow line they cross the line and change lanes so as to execute left or right turn.

220.  You cannot enter the right side of the road in order to overtake where there is this sign.

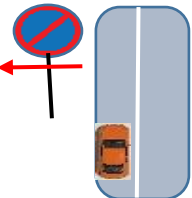

221. You should adjust the driver's seat of the four wheeled vehicle so that your knees are fully stretched out when you step on the clutch.

222. Using a mobile phone or looking at the screen of a navigation system while driving does not affect a driver's attention and may not result in overlooking possible danger or an accident.

223.  The traffic sign designates that proceeding on the right side of the road, for the purpose of overtaking.

224. Because my car entered the intersection first, I turned right before the oncoming vehicle.

225. When passing school bus or kindergarten bus, which has stopped to drop the children off, you must always stop behind the bus and confirm safety.

226.  The car shown in this picture is parked illegally.

227. Driver's license is classified into different categories. Namely first class, second class and moped.

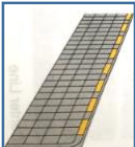

228.  The sign and the marking indicate that the lane is for buses only. So other vehicle (excepted for moped light duty special vehicles and light weight vehicles) are prohibited to travel the lane.

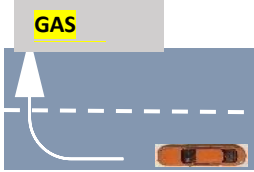

229.  All vehicles cannot make a right or left turn.

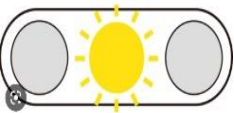

230. The term "slow down" refers to reducing speed at which the vehicle can come to an immediate stop at any time that usually means driving at a speed of less than 10km/h.

231.  A traffic sign shown in the figure indicates closed to pedestrians.

232. You must fulfill the requirement for driving as stated in your driver's license.

233.  Stopping and parking here is prohibited.

234.  To enter the gas station located on the right side of the road, you made a right turn from the far left side of the road and crossed halfway line to enter the establishment as indicated by the arrow.

235.  Pedestrians, vehicles, and streetcars/trams may proceed carefully by paying attention to other traffic.

236.  On the road with this sign parking and stopping is prohibited from 8 to 20.

237. When you drive a car equipped with an air bag system, you do not need to fasten your seatbelt.

238.  A traffic sign as shown in the figure indicated that there is a large intersection and you can go ahead.

239. You may stop your car inside the ``no stopping zone`` in front of the police or fire station if there is no emergency vehicle approaching from behind.

240. On the rainy day, to stop safely on a steel plate at roadwork site, it is better to apply breaks suddenly.

241.  Indicates the end of section or zone where the traffic regulation shown by the main sign ends.

242. When you go down the slope in automatic transmission vehicle, change gears to L (or 1).

243. When police officer is controlling traffic is holding his/her arms straight up (vertically) at an intersection. This hand signal has the same meaning as the yellow light for the traffic proceeding parallel to the stance of the police.

244. A regular license holder can ride a regular motorcycle.

245.  This sign means ``closed to pedestrians``

246. Stopping distance, Is the distance travelled by the vehicle after the driver has reacted to a danger and hit the brake plus the distance required for the vehicle to come to a halt.

247. If the hand signal of a police officer who is direction traffic contradict a traffic light. The traffic light take priority.

248. When you pass the railroad crossing. You should be careful on the traffic ahead or from the opposite direction so that you may not be stack on the crossing.

249. When you make left turn to leave the road, you should move along the left side a possible and slow down.

250. When you drive the car with automatic transmission it is important for you to conform the position of the brake pedal and the accelerator pedal by looking at them that you will not misstep on them before starting the engines.